A message from Laura Bent, CEO

In the past year, Samaritan House has faced new challenges, and every time, we have risen to meet them. From emergency responses to local crises, to meeting a rising tide of need, we've been working hard every step of the way. When families were displaced by violence in Half Moon Bay, we worked on the ground and with our partners to keep them safe and stable. When the lines at our pantry stretched down the block, we made sure each family that came to us got the essential food they needed.

For all these needs and many more, we've responded - with your support. Thank you for standing with us. Whether you've been with us for many years or you're a first-time donor, your support in this critical time has made the difference. From keeping Kids Closet stocked with clothing, to driving meals to homebound seniors, to giving big at our signature fundraising gala, you've been on our team. Thank you.

I am incredibly proud of what we've achieved together in this year. As Samaritan House underwent big changes in leadership, our staff made sure that everyone who needed our critical services, remained clothed, fed, healthy and housed. In the past year alone, our dedicated pantry staff and volunteers served over 26,000 clients, and our shelter staff provided 55,000 nights of safe sleep. Serving that many clients is hard work, and I am grateful for the dedicated team that has been there day in and day out.

I am incredibly blessed to lead this organization. I am also so proud to be working alongside our new medical leadership team, Drs. Baldeep Singh and Tamara Montecute as well as our new COO, Alec Raffin. These individuals are already making remarkable contributions to our executive leadership team. Despite their brief tenure, they've already made remarkable contributions to our executive leadership team.

With nearly 50 years of experience, dedicated staff, and a strong community of neighbors like you with us, we're ready to respond to crises big and small.

This year's Annual Report is a window into the work we do at Samaritan House. You'll hear from four clients who have come to us in different moments of need. For each of these clients, our staff has been there to alleviate the immediate crisis, assess all of the various needs of the household, and connect our clients to ongoing resources. We are in real conversations with real people every day. We are their lifeline when their kids need to switch schools, when they have to choose between buying milk or buying diapers, and when they are moments away from losing power or losing their home. Samaritan House is the village that those living in poverty don't always have and our support goes beyond food, shelter, and other essential services. We let clients know they are not alone.

As long as you all are with us, we know we can continue to meet the needs of our neighbors and let them know, every day, that they are not alone. Thank you for being with us as we work together to fight poverty and lift lives.

In the past year,
Samaritan House has served more than
26,000 clients.

The need in our community now is higher than ever before.

Client stories

Virginia

Virginia grew up in San Mateo County and raised a family with her husband. Together, they ran a company and lived comfortably for many years, selling their company and retiring together. But when her husband became ill and passed away, Virginia went from comfortably middle class to living on the edge. "I had all this success in my younger years, and now it's all disappeared." She lost her family home, and her savings quickly vanished. Virginia scrambled and was able to find a small apartment. But, as a disabled senior, returning to work was not an option, and living on a fixed income was a challenge amid rising prices. Samaritan House came to her aid, providing essential rental support. With help from her case manager, Luis, Virginia was able to stay housed and is now getting help as she looks for more long-term solutions. Knowing she has her case manager at the other end of the line anytime she calls has been comforting. "Luis was so outgoing, so comforting, and so personable. I felt like I was the only person he worked with all day long."

Cynthia

Cynthia, her husband, and their three children came to San Mateo County in 2020 as asylum seekers. Both parents worked full-time, but still couldn't cover the basics. With two disabled children requiring extra care, Cynthia had to stretch every dollar as far as she could. She came to Samaritan House for help. She was surprised by the resources available to her family. "I called Samaritan House for help with food and clothes, and they helped me with housing, too." Ana, a staff member at Samaritan House, was the person Cynthia called whenever she needed help. "I always call Ana when I need help. She makes sure I can get what I need."

Samaritan House made their family's challenges easier. "I feel super grateful because every month I have food, I have clothes, I have a doctor, I have almost everything." Now, when Cynthia meets other immigrants trying to get their feet under them, she always sends them to Ana, knowing they'll get that same care and comfort that she has been able to rely on.

Daniel

Daniel first came to Samaritan House a year ago. A challenging home life had led him to be without housing. Without reliable meals and other essentials, his health was suffering. At a medical visit, a doctor mentioned the Samaritan House Worker Resource Center (WRC) and Reyna, who runs the center. Daniel reached out to Reyna, looking for work. What he found was so much more. At the WRC, he found a community. He learned about the shelters and was able to move into El Camino House in February. Once in the shelter, he was connected to even more services, including healthcare and food. He became a WRC regular, always ready to take on a job and do his best. "I am grateful to Reyna for helping me get shelter and work too. Samaritan House has been good for me."

Renato

Renato has been in the Bay Area for 11 years, working as an aide with developmentally disabled clients. Originally from the Philippines, he moved to the United States alone and has no local family. He worked hard at his job and was even able to send money home from time to time to support his family there. "I'm alone here in the United States. My family is in the Philippines but I'm a US citizen. It's expensive in the Philippines, too, and I want to send money to help them but I have to pay so much to live here." When prices began to rise rapidly last year, he was on his own. Without the safety net of family, he needed help and he found it at Samaritan House. Knowing he doesn't have to worry about whether or not he'll be able to afford food is a relief. Renato is not alone in that relief – some of his clients come for food too. Samaritan House has been good for him and his community of clients. He's excited to be able to give back when he can. "I came here last week with some of my clients and we helped pack food!"

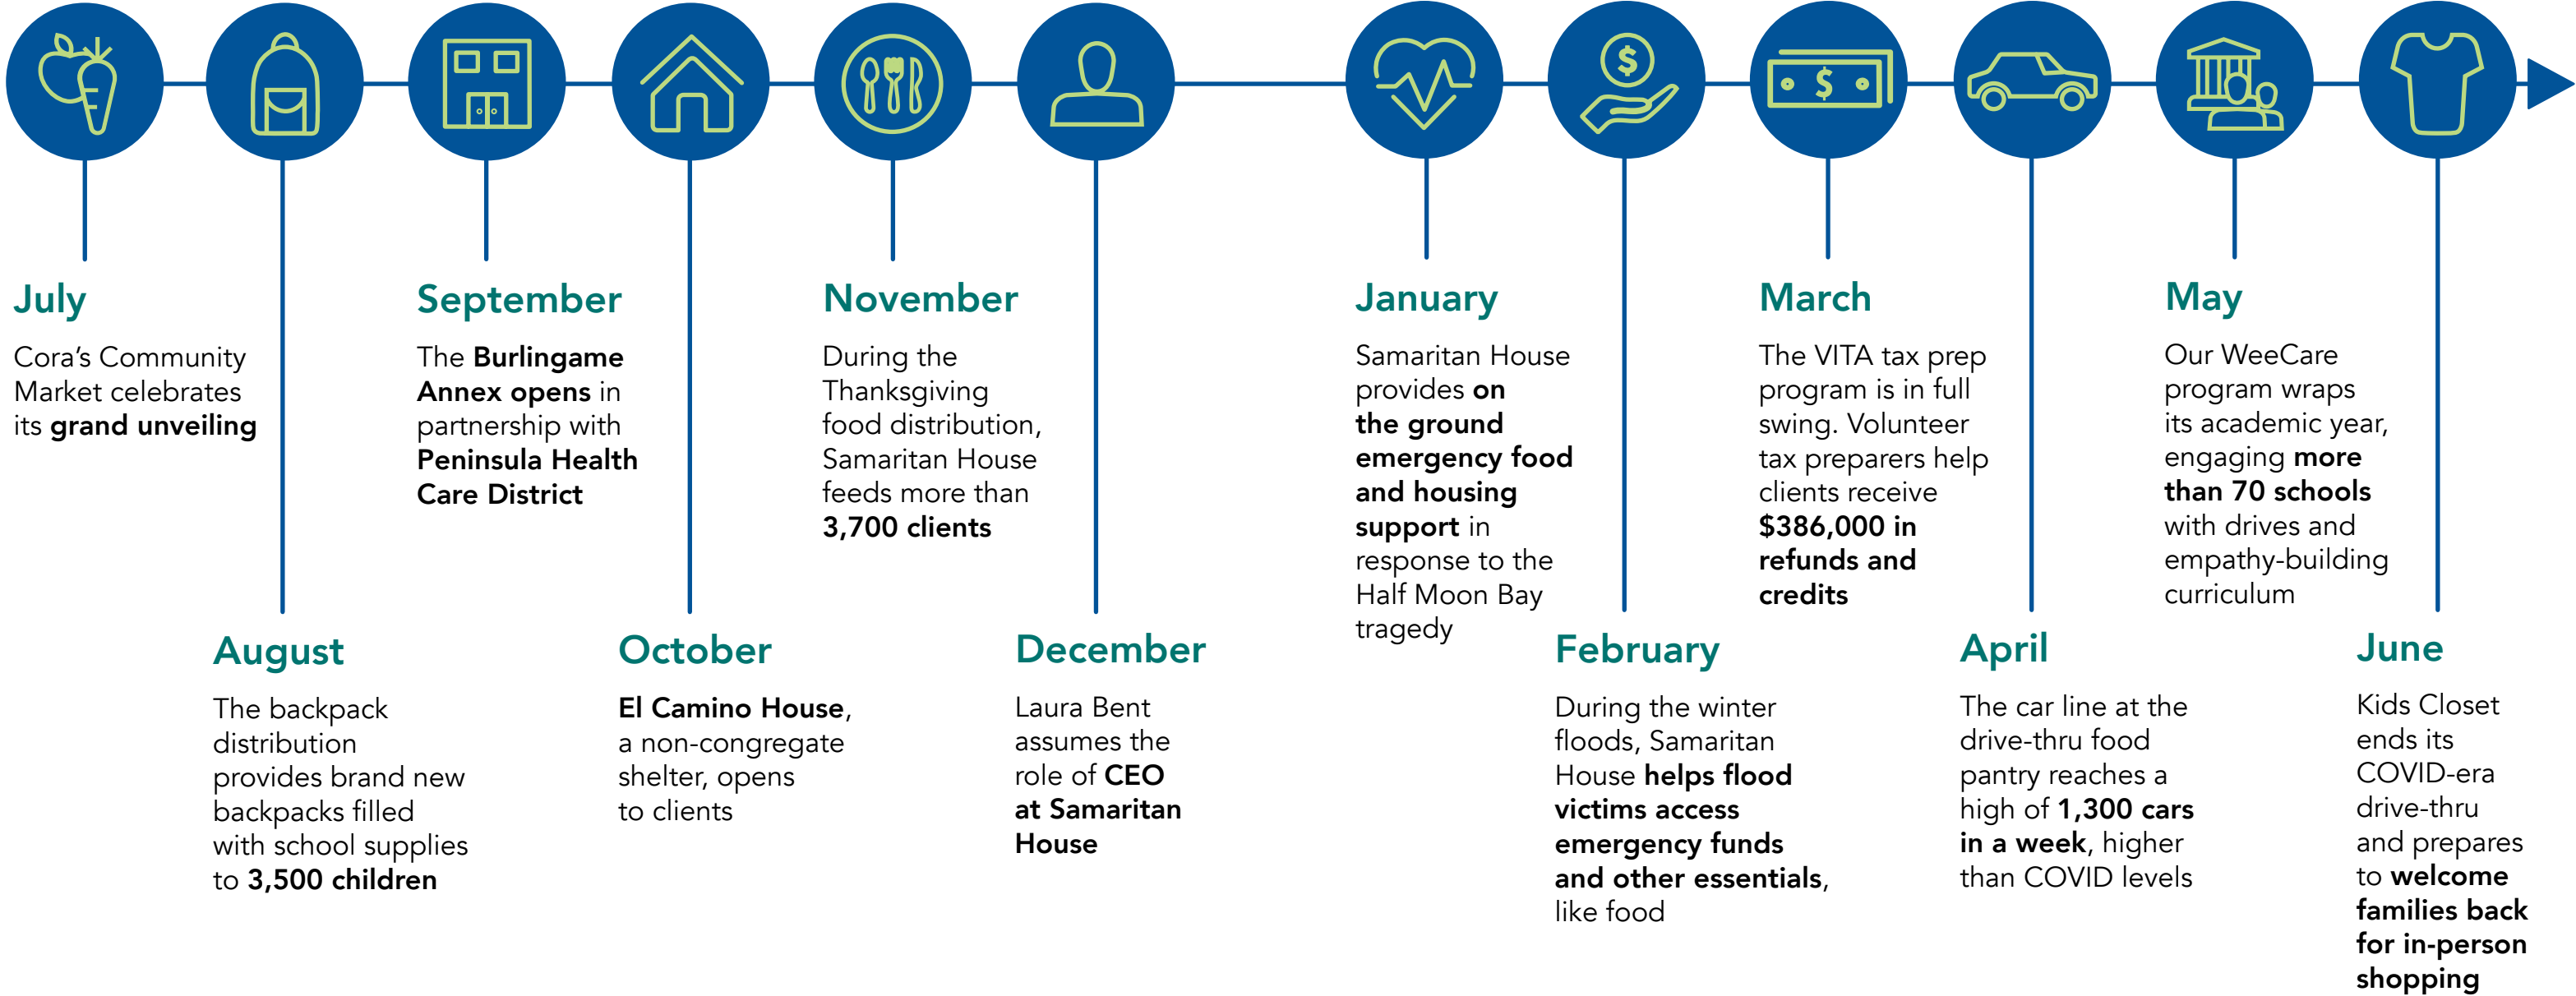

In the past year,
Samaritan House has provided more than
55,000 nights
of safe, warm sleep
to clients at our three shelters.

Year in review: a timeline of events

Dr. Cora Clemons Emerging Young Samaritan Award

The Dr. Cora Clemons Emerging Young Samaritan Award is inspired by the community service work and selfless spirit of our founder, Dr. Cora Clemons, R.N., M.F.C.C., M.P.H., Ph.D. In 1974, Dr. Clemons was concerned that basic social services like food, housing, and medical care were difficult to access. She saw a need and took action.

Today, Samaritan House is more dedicated than ever to respecting and fulfilling her vision and honoring those who've joined in the fight. The award recognizes young changemakers, 16-22 years old, in San Mateo County, whose community service work models Dr. Clemons' commitment to service and compassion.

In honor of Dr. Clemons' life-long dedication and advocacy, we are proud to announce the 2023 winner of the Dr. Cora Clemons Emerging Young Samaritan Award: Amy Nguyen.

In an effort to make her school equitable and inclusive for everyone, Amy and her classmates came together to supply free period pads and tampons for their school bathrooms. They believe that access to basic needs can better equip the students to feel at peace, safe, and thought of.

Their dedication made the grassroots campaign for free menstrual supplies possible and made a positive change on the school culture.

Samaritan House is proud of the work Amy has done, and we are happy to recognize and award her proactive and inclusive efforts with the Dr. Cora Clemons Emerging Young Samaritan Award. Congratulations, Amy!

A message from our Board President, Michael Jackson

As Samaritan House stands on the edge of our 50th year of service, I am proud to step into my new role as Board President. The coming year marks not only 50 years of Samaritan House but also my 10th year as a part of this community.

I first came to Samaritan House as an occasional volunteer. The more time I spent volunteering, the more excited I became about this extraordinary organization and the work they do for those in need. What started with a few volunteer shifts has now become a passion, and I am proud to dedicate my time and energy to serving our neighbors in need.

For many of you, this story is likely familiar. However you first found Samaritan House, once you've become a part of the community, it's easy to get excited about the work we do. Supporting Samaritan House is supporting all our neighbors through tough times. Every dollar given and every hour volunteered is an investment in our community and its future.

What once was a very small organization, founded by Dr. Cora Clemons, has blossomed into the poverty alleviation leader in San Mateo County.

Dr. Clemons' dedication to lifting up our neighbors has stayed with us all these years, and I am grateful to be a part of that legacy of service.

The year to come is one full of possibilities for Samaritan House and our community. I look forward to the official opening of Cora's Community Market. This market will allow clients to have a shopping experience when they come in for food. The market is more than just food though, it's also an experience that will give our clients a sense of dignity as they get the essentials they need to survive.

With so much uncertainty in the world, it's hard to know what challenges Samaritan House will encounter in the year to come. But, I know our community. And I know the dedicated staff and volunteers at Samaritan House. Most of all, I am certain of one thing: we will meet those challenges together, with innovation, passion, and a commitment to dignity for all.

Financials

July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2023

Thanks to your generous support, we leveled-up our services over the last three years to meet the critical demand for food, shelter, and financial assistance brought on by the COVID-19 crisis. With need again at peak pandemic levels, we remain steadfast in our commitment to providing care, empathy, and stability to our community.

With your continued generous support, there's so much more we can do for our neighbors, and we ask that you join us in helping our clients regain their stability. Out of a relentless crisis, we will emerge a stronger community, more deeply committed to each other and dedicated to ensuring all in need have access to food, clothing, shelter, and healthcare, through the COVID crisis and beyond.

Samaritan House is deeply grateful to everyone on this list for their generous support. We strive for accuracy in our listings. Please email giving@samaritanhousesanmateo.org if your information needs to be updated.

We made provisions in our trust several years ago in order to make sure that Samaritan House would continue to have our help in the future to serve those in our community who are in short-term or long-term need. It is important to us whether Samaritan House’s mission be “neighbor helping neighbor” or “Fighting Poverty, Lifting Lives,” that Samaritan House’s free services (food, medical, dental, housing assistance, children’s clothing, or whatever else is added in the future) continue to exist. We invite you to join us.

- Tish and Jim Busselle

JOHN KELLY LEGACY CIRCLE

We rely on leadership and collaboration of people like you to address complex issues faced by those living in poverty. Making the decision to prepare a legacy gift gives you the opportunity to provide lasting, positive change in thousands of lives for generations to come. Legacy donors are invited to join Samaritan House’s John Kelly Legacy Circle.

John Kelly Legacy Circle members inspire others to look toward the future and learn how they, too, can have a lasting impact in the lives of our neighbors who are less fortunate. Please let us know if you would like to explore your family’s priorities, hopes, and dreams to make this San Mateo County community a better place for all. To join the John Kelly Legacy Circle, all you need do is tell us that you have included Samaritan House in your estate plan, whether by your will, trust, retirement plan, bank account or other means. We hope that you will allow us to thank and recognize you in Samaritan House publications and communications. If you choose, we will respect your wish to remain anonymous.

Give us a call, in confidence, at 650.523.0817.
